DIABETES INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDY PROGRAM (DISP)

Purpose
The purpose of this Pilot/Feasibility grant is to foster new interdisciplinary collaboration between TWO or more University of Michigan faculty from DISTINCT disciplines to focus their combined research strengths on cutting-edge areas in diabetes research.

Eligibility
- Minimum of two Co-Principal Investigators (Co-PIs) from distinct disciplines
- Co-PIs must have full-time instructional, research or clinical track faculty positions at the University of Michigan
- Basic and clinical diabetes research
- Each Co-PI must provide critical intellectual as well as technical input into the proposed project

Funding
Up to $100,000/2 years

Applications
- Proposals should be for two years of support, with total requested funding up to $100,000 direct costs
- Application Deadline: Monday, August 5, 2019 (11:59 PM)
- Anticipated Funding Date: December 1, 2019

Apply through the Competition Space website umms.infoready4.com

Questions: Contact Sarah Cain, (734)763-2561, cains@umich.edu